DONINGER; CLARK COUNTY, NEVADA;
DOES 1-10; and ROE ENTITIES 11-20,
inclusive,

Defendants.

Plaintiff MONICA CONTRERAS, for her Complaint against Defendants, and each of them, jointly and severally, alleges and claims as set forth below. Plaintiff also respectfully requests a Jury Trial.

1. This Court has jurisdiction under 28 U.S.C. §1331 and §1343, and 42 U.S.C.
§1983, and supplemental jurisdiction with respect to state law claims pursuant to 28 U.S.C.
§1367. Venue is proper in this District under 28 U.S.C. § 1391(b)(2). A substantial portion of the events and conduct giving rise to the violations of law complained of herein occurred in this District.

1 2. Plaintiff MONICA CONTRERAS is a resident and citizen of Clark County,
2 Nevada. She brings this action individually on her own behalf, and also, as natural mother and
3 guardian, on behalf of her daughter ANDREA PATERNA, a minor.

4 3. The Family Court referred to herein is a division of the Eighth Judicial District
5 Court, also known as the Clark County District Court. On information and belief, for purposes
6 relevant to the claims herein, the District Court, including the Family Court, is operated by and
7 on behalf of, and is a part of, each and both of Defendant CLARK COUNTY and of the STATE
8 OF NEVADA.

10 4. Defendant RONALD D. FOX was at relevant times a court marshal at the Family
11 Court and is sued in his individual capacity.

12 5. Defendant JAMES KENYON was at relevant times a court marshal at the Family
13 Court and is sued in his individual capacity.

14 5A. Defendant GREGORY BRYANT was at relevant times a court marshal at the 15 Family Court and is sued in his individual capacity.

16 6. Defendant PATRICIA DONINGER was at relevant times a hearing master at the 17 Family Court and is sued in her individual capacity.
18

19 7. Upon information and belief, Defendant CLARK COUNTY and the STATE of 20 NEVADA, through its EIGHTH JUDICIAL DISTRICT COURT, were, for purposes relevant to 21 the claims herein, co-employers of Defendants FOX, KENYON, BRYANT and DONINGER.
22

23 8. The true names and/or capacities of Defendants DOES 1-10 and ROE ENTITIES
24 11-20, are unknown to Plaintiff, who therefore sues said Defendants, and each of them, by such 25 fictitious names. On information and belief, each of the Defendants so designated are 26 responsible in some manner for the events and happenings referred to, and caused damages to the 27 Plaintiff as alleged herein, and Plaintiff will ask leave of this Court to amend this Complaint to 28

1 insert the true names and capacities of such DOE and ROE Defendants, when same have been
2 ascertained, together with appropriate charging allegations, and to join such parties in this action.

3 9. On August 8, 2011, Plaintiff appeared in the Family Court, with her young
4 daughter, at a hearing concerning a temporary restraining order that had been moved for by her
5 ex-husband.

6 10. Defendant PATRICIA DONINGER, a hearing master, was presiding at this 7 hearing.

8 11. After Hearing Master DONINGER denied the ex-husband's motion, Plaintiff
9 began to leave the courtroom with her daughter.

10 12. As Plaintiff was leaving the courtroom, she was approached by Defendant FOX
11 who told her she needed to go into an anteroom for a drug search.

12 13. Defendant FOX told Plaintiff that he had been directed to do a drug search by
13 Defendant DONINGER.

14 14. On information and belief, on or about the same day, Defendant FOX told a 15 representative of Child Protective Services that he had been directed to do a drug search by
16 Defendant DONINGER.

17 15. Neither Defendant FOX or Defendant DONINGER had any reason to have a drug
18 search done, or any reason to detain Plaintiff.

19 16. While in the anteroom, Defendant FOX engaged in non-consensual improper
20 sexual contact with Plaintiff's body and made sexually abusive and harassing requests.

21 17. Plaintiff returned to the courtroom and addressed Defendant DONINGER
22 concerning Fox' actions.

23 18. Both Defendants FOX and KENYON intimidated and threatened to arrest
24 Plaintiff in an attempt to coerce Plaintiff into addressing Defendant Hearing Master DONINGER
25

1 and recanting her statements about FOX's actions.

2 19. When Plaintiff did not recant her statements, Defendants FOX and KENYON
3 arrested Plaintiff, placed her in handcuffs, issued her criminal citations, and detained her for an
4 extended period in a holding cell at the Family Court.

5 19A. During Plaintiff's detention in the holding cell, Defendant BRYANT, a
6 supervisor, discussed the events and citations with Plaintiff and FOX and KENYON.

7 19B. During Plaintiff's detention in the holding cell, she was required to submit samples
8 for drug testing, all of which were promptly reported as negative.

9 19C. None of Defendants FOX, KENYON, BRYANT, or DONINGER had any reason
10 to have a drug search or drug testing done, or any reason to detain Plaintiff.

11 20. After that extended detention in the holding cell, other officers arrived and 12 released Plaintiff from custody.

13 21. While Plaintiff was being arrested and detained, Defendants had the court clerk
14 call Child Protective Services to come and take custody of Plaintiff's daughter.

15 22. Child Protective Services did come to the court and took custody of Plaintiff's
16 daughter, holding her for several hours before she was released to her father.

17 23. For an extended period of months, Plaintiff was only allowed limited supervised
18 visits with her daughter at Child Haven.

19 24. Upon information and belief, many months after Plaintiff submitted a complaint,
20 FOX's employment was terminated due to his improper actions with respect to Plaintiff.

21 25. Upon information and belief, Defendant KENYON was a supervisor over
22 Defendant FOX.

23 25A. Upon information and belief, Defendant BRYANT was a supervisor over
24 Defendants FOX and KENYON.

1 25B. The report of the Internal Affairs investigation noted that Defendant KENYON
2 failed to take any supervisory action and improperly complied with directions given to him by
3 the far more junior marshal Defendant Fox.

4 25C. The Internal Affairs investigation further noted that neither KENYON nor 5 BRYANT took appropriate and necessary steps to consider the validity of FOX's accusation and
6 criminal citation of Plaintiff purportedly for making an allegation of misconduct against a peace
7 officer. The report further stated: "the mere making of an allegation of misconduct against a
8 peace officer is not an offense that a person can be arrested upon, Kenyon and Bryant should 9 both know this" and that KENYON and BRYANT both showed a "lack of basic police
10 knowledge."

11 25D. The Internal Affairs investigation further noted that FOX had been accused of the 12 same type of behavior a year earlier but that there was no record of such matter.

13 26. Defendant DONINGER had an administrative duty to supervise the conduct of 14 the court staff, including the court marshals.

15 27. Defendant DONINGER's administrative duty to supervise included a duty to not 16 permit court staff to engage in abuse and harassment.

17 28. Particularly in view of the dramatic difference in Plaintiff's demeanor between 18 her initial appearance at the motion hearing and upon her return into the courtroom, Defendant
19 DONINGER had notice that something untoward and traumatic had occurred.

20 29. As part of her administrative supervisory duties, Defendant DONINGER had 21 sufficient reason, and a duty, to intervene, inquire and consider what Plaintiff and the Marshals',
22 had to say about whether Plaintiff had been subjected to improprieties and, related thereto, to
23 ascertain the asserted basis for the conduct of the marshals in arresting Plaintiff in the courtroom.

25
26
27

1 30. Defendant DONINGER ignored Plaintiff, took no steps to allow Plaintiff to fully
2 explain what she had to say about what had and was happening to her, no steps to ascertain what
3 the marshals had to say, and related thereto, no step to ascertain the asserted basis for the conduct
4 of the marshals in arresting Plaintiff in the courtroom.

5 31. At all relevant times, the acts and conduct of Defendants FOX, KENYON,
6 BRYANT and DONINGER were done within the course and scope of their employment as
7 employees and/or agents of Defendant CLARK COUNTY and THE STATE of NEVADA.

9 32. As a direct and proximate result of the wrongful conduct of FOX, KENYON,
10 BRYANT and DONINGER, and each of them, Plaintiff personally and individually suffered
11 injury and damages, including, but not limited to, deprivation of her personal liberty, deprivation
12 of her maternal rights with respect to her daughter, monetary loss with respect to dealing with 13 criminal charges that should not have been made, and emotional injury and distress. .
14

16 BRYANT and DONINGER, and each of them, Plaintiff's minor daughter, ANDREA
17 PATERNA, suffered injury and damages, including, but not limited to, emotional injury and 18 distress resulting from, inter alia, witnessing her mother's dealings with and arrest by the 19 marshals, being taken from the company and custody of her mother and into the custody of 20 strangers to her, and subjected to an extended period of limited visitation with her mother.

5 alleged above extended the period of Plaintiff's unreasonable detention and seizure in violation
6 of her rights pursuant to the 4th Amendment of the United States Constitution.

8 35. Defendant DONINGER'S conscious disregard of Plaintiff's rights and failure to 9 act as alleged above was a contributing cause of Plaintiff being subjected to an unreasonable

12 suffered injury and damages, including, but not limited to, deprivation of her personal liberty and
